Jean-Guy Gorley Appointed Chancelier du Canada!

David Tétraut, Bailli Délégué du Canada, is pleased to announce the appointment of Jean-Guy Gorley as Chancelier du Canada. Jean-Guy has been instrumental in growing and developing the Ottawa Bailliage over the last few years.

The position of Chancelier is equivalent to the position of Vice-President. However, the prime responsibility for Chancelier is focusing on member development, and Jean-Guy looks forward to taking on his responsibilities in this critical area with the same vigour he has brought to his role as Bailli.

Here are a few other interesting facts about Jean-Guy. In 1973, he was drafted by the Montreal Expos baseball team as outstanding young pitcher. He went to training camp but unfortunately did not make the team. Founder and President of Solo Direct Media (a firm specializing in publishing direct mail advertising magazines), Jean-Guy has also found the time to serve as Vice-President of the Moisson Outaouais Gatineau food bank since 2013. This organization supplies food to over 23 local community organizations and is responsible for serving over 800,000 meals a year in the community. He is the marketing consultant and ambassador to the Ottawa Sports Entertainment Group, developing the strategies employed by the Ottawa Red Blacks Canadian Football League team towards the francophone community. His son, an executive chef in the Cayman Islands, has been recently appointed the Bailli of the Caymans. It runs in the family!

Please join the National Council in wishing Jean-Guy success in his new role with la Chaîne des Rôtisseurs in Canada.

Winnipeg's Barry Burdeny Celebrates World Chaîne Day

Barry toasts World Chaîne Day.

As is his habit, Barry Burdeny spent World Chaîne Day enjoying a special luncheon menu created just for him by Sous Chef Russell Forsythe at The Fairmont Winnipeg. He has shared his menu – and a few photos - with us.

Celebrate World Chaîne Day 2017!

April 22, 2017

How? Here are a few tips from International!

- Wear your ribbons: the best-known symbol of our confrérie is the ribbons we wear. The ribbons are a perfect conversation piece. We would like all members to wear them on April 22 - especially if you are a working professional member.
- On April 22: visit a restaurant displaying the Chaîne plaque - have lunch, dinner or just a drink in a Chaîne restaurant and make a toast to the Chaîne.
- Be active and participate: organize a member's event, include an introduction event for potential members - maybe a presentation, demonstration or a tasting.
- On the day: we'd love to find out how you are celebrating World Chaîne Day. Send an e-mail with pictures to worldchaineday@gmail.com or connect via social media with hashtags below.
- New for 2017: social media photo contest with these themes: feeling of togetherness; activity on local level gastronomy; and, most importantly, happiness and that wholeheartedly genuine moment. Awards will be made for the top three photos expressing the themes.
- Social media wall: Provided completely free by the Chaîne's Siege Mondial, an internet connection plus a device to enable you to use it.
- Following social media for World Chaîne Day 2017 has been made really easy - Facebook, Twitter and Instagram will be included.
- How to share: the social media wall can be shown using a video projector e.g. during a Chaîne event. Members can send photos and greetings through their favourite social media. Postings will appear on the wall almost instantly.
- Use of hashtags is essential: remember to add the three following hashtags #chaineday #worldchaineday #chainedesrotisseurs

Should you need further help in organizing your participation, please e-mail our International Chair Ari-Pekka Parviainen, WCD Organizing Committee at worldchaineday@gmail.com or visit the page on the international website: World Chaîne Day Q&A.
